

RUNNING FOR THE WHEAT BELT

The Lou Athan Challenge

13th of September 2014

Nick Kelly completed the gruelling 122km Lou Athan Challenge through the Fitzgerald River National Park.

He started the journey on Thursday the 11th of September 2014 at 6am from Hopetoun. Running along trails and through the tough wilderness section, he clocked a total time of 37 hrs 57 mins and 36 seconds. He arrived into Bremer Bay at 8.00pm on Friday.

Mr Kelly said 'the spectacular scenery compensated for the pain'.

Nick Kelly a farmer from Newdegate ran to promote the health and wealth of the wheatbelt.

For more information or to donate go to www. esperance.com

Nick Kelly heading into the Fitzgerald River National Park.

Nick Kelly completing the last section of the challenge.